Highlights

420 pages A4 consumables
The Philips FaxPro supports the demands of business users who tend to receive many faxes. Therefore, the separately available consumable offers 420 pages A4 regardless of the amount of text on each page.

Low Standby power
State-of-the-art products nowadays meet customer needs and take also care of environmental aspects. Because of this, the Philips FaxPro consumes less than 1 Watt in Standby mode.

Page memory
Your Philips FaxPro never loses any faxes. It stores up to 50 pages of incoming messages in case of missing paper or ink film. They remain stored even after a power failure.

Photo Resolution
Improve the quality of your copies by setting the right resolution. Choose FINE for documents with small text and drawings or PHOTO for documents with photos.

Quick search
Access the stored directory entries by using the alphanumeric keyboard. Just enter the initial letters of the desired entry and your fax machine will show you the telephone book entry for the corresponding letters.
