MX 10.0 LP

Unusually thin – unusually fashionable: Fast gaming keyboard with real MX feeling

Models may vary from the image shown

The CHERRY MX 10.0 gaming keyboard – unusually thin and unusually fashionable. The aluminum housing, made out of one piece and the new MX low profile switches allows this really thin and elegant design. The MX low profile switches, developed and produced in Germany in combination with the high-speed key recognition and the shorter bounce time makes the keyboard really fast. The RGB lightning effects in more than 16 million colors and numerous integrated color routines, can easily be adapted and individualized with the CHERRY Utility Software. All settings will be safed on the on-board memory. Full n-key rollover, anti-ghosting, WIN key lockout, lasered abrasion-resistant keycaps and a detachable cable with Micro USB-C offers everything what´´s requested for a good game. MX 10.0 – the design statement in gaming!
