Ariete presents the evolution of Scaldì, the ideal electric food warmer for those who eat away from home and but do not want to renounce to the authenticity of food prepared at home. Thanks to the new rectangular shape Scaldì is more ergonomic and easy to bring around as it easily enters into a handbag. The airtight lid prevents food leakage, while the two comfortable side hooks make the lid easier to remove. Furthermore new Scaldì significantly reduces the food heating time. The internal dish is enamelled, non-stick, scratch resistant and easy to clean. Take it with you, warm up and eat your lunch!
